

In the short time that I've had X-Radio in the car I've really come to rely on the traffic reports. On work trips I don't leave the driveway without listening to XM traffic. I think it's saved me several times from traffic jams and saved me from being late to appointments and saving on gas as well. I pay for this service and really don't want to lose it.

Bob